

Hotel / Property Information

Name of Venue: Rockwell Dinner Theatre showing Kaapse Stories of the Mother City (was Richard's Supper Stage & Bistro)

Area / Town: Cape Town

Category / Rating: Dinner Theatre

Construction: Building

Show Info: KAAPSE STORIES in the Mother City is an exciting vibrant new musical revue which offers a blend of humorous storytelling, powerful and emotional songs and likeable performers unique only to Cape Town. Intimate and enchanting, the show allows the audience to get to know and meet the Kleintjies family whilst giving us an insight into a vigorous cosmopolitan community that thrived at the foot of Table Mountain in District Six.

Comment: Directed by the award-winning director Basil Appollis and produced by Richard Loring of internationally acclaimed "African Footprint" fame, this quality production with a strong emphasis on entertainment allows international guests to discover the colourful history of the Cape and its vibrant people.

It is supper theatre with a difference and this interactive entertainment experience with sparkling music, spine-tingling harmonies and vibrant African passion gives visitors an uplifting insight into a community that can only be described "as the original Rainbow Nation". - Basil Appollis

NEW venue: Now showing at Rockwell Dinner Theatre
